RAILWAY EXPRESS DATA

First Class General Merchandise—Rates vary according to weight and distance carried.

Second Class Articles of Food and Drink with limitations, also grains, roots, seeds, etc. Rates vary according to weight and distance carried and are 25% less than First Class.

Printed Matter Attractive low rates are in effect on Printed Advertising Matter, Printed Cards, Books, Calendars, Catalogues, Pamphlets, Paper, etc. and include valuation coverage up to $50.00 per shipment or 50 cents per pound without additional cost.

Special Express Rates are available for certain classes of merchandise and point to point commodity rates are available.

Shipments may be forwarded C. O. D. and charges for shipments may be Paid in Part.

All Rates and Charges include Collection and Delivery in cities and principal towns and charges may be prepaid by shipper or collected from the consignee.

Regular Express Charges include valuation coverage up to $50.00 on each shipment of 100 lbs. or less, and 50c. per lb. when shipments weigh over 100 lbs. Additional insurance may be obtained at 25c. per $100.00 or fraction thereof.

Air Express Service (Foreign & Domestic) is also available through Railway Express. Shipments for transportation by Air are accepted under the terms and conditions applying to that service. Shipments of unusual bulk or weight (over 250 lbs.) may be accepted for transportation by Air by advance arrangement. Practically all classes of matter can be handled by Air Express, except Acids, Inflammables, and some articles which can be accepted only under defined conditions.

Additional information can be secured from any Railway Express office.

In the Church of St. Vincent Ferrer yesterday afternoon, Miss Elizabeth Monteiro de Barros Carmichael, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Martin Carmichael, of New York, formerly of Fairfield, Conn., became the bride of Mr. Michael Ward Leisure, son of Mr. George Stanley Leisure and Mrs. Lucille Pelouze Leisure of New York. The Rev. James J. McLarney, O. P., performed the ceremony. The reception was at the Colony Club.

The bride was escorted by her father. She wore a gown of white peau de soie with bateau neck, a basque waist and cathedral train, and her mantilla was of Chantilly lace. She carried phalaenopsis orchids, freesias and stephanotis.

Miss Evelyn Carmichael, her cousin, was maid of honor, and Mrs. Robert F. Batchelder was matron of honor. The other attendants were Mrs. Martin Carmichael jr., Mrs. Donald Wainwright Carmichael and Mrs. Peter Keeton Leisure, sisters-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. C. H. Coster Gerard. Lea Carmichael, the bride's niece, was flower girl.

The attendants wore petal-skirted, ballerina-length gowns of raspberry satin and matching hats fashioned in soft bows. They carried variegated raspberry and white miniature carnations.

Mr. John D. Barrett 2d was the best man. Ushers were Messrs. George, David and Peter Leisure, brothers of the bridegroom; Martin and Donald Carmichael, brothers of the bride; and Smith Walker Bagley.

Mrs. Leisure, a member of the Bridgeport Junior League and the Daughters of the Cincinnati, was graduated from Bolton School and Bennett College and made her debut at the Fairfield Hunt Club.

The bridegroom, alumnus of Choate School and Yale, '57, where he was made a member of DKE and Wolf's Head. He attends the University of Virginia Law School. He was a lieutenant (j. g.) in the Pacific Fleet of the Navy.

The couple will live in Charlottesville, Va.

International Paper's operating earnings for the second quarter will trail the year-earlier period, said William A. Hanway, secretary. "There was a flurry of price cuts in April, much to our surprise," he added. Mr. Hanway said the present over-capacity in the paper industry is making it difficult for borrowers to find capital for further expansion. This, with normal growth in demand, should bring capacity in line with sales eventually, the official declared.

He was a director and a member of the executive and finance committees of American Equitable Assurance Co. of New York, the New York Fire Insurance Co. and of the Globe & Republic Insurance Co. of America. He was a director of the American Distilling Co. and the Tishman Realty & Construction Co.

He was a member of the Harvard Club, the Drug & Chemical Club and the Association of Ex-Members of Squadron A, and a former officer of the U. S. Naval Reserve.

Surviving are his wife Gerda; two daughters, Margaret and Carol, and a sister, Miss Agnes M. Nelson.

Robert D. L. Gardiner to Wed Mrs. Oakes

3/4/1961

Mrs. Eunice Bailey Oakes, widow of William Pitt Oakes, and Robert David Lion Gardiner.

Marriage Is Planned For St. Thomas Church

The engagement has been announced here and in England of Mrs. William Pitt Oakes, of New York, daughter of Mrs. Alfred Bailey, of London, and the late Mr. Bailey, to Mr. Robert David Lion Gardiner, of New York, Palm Beach, Fla., and Gardiner's Island, N. Y. The wedding will take place March 21 at St. Thomas Church, this city.

Mrs. Oakes, the former Miss Eunice Bailey, is the widow of William Pitt Oakes, son of Eunice, Lady Oakes, and the late Sir Harry Oakes, of Nassau, Bahamas. William Pitt Oakes died in New York in April, 1958.

Mr. Gardiner is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Alexander Gardiner, of New York. He is the sixteenth owner of Gardiner's Island, given to his ancestor, Lion Gardiner, by King Charles I, in 1639. It is the only lordship and manor house in this country to be held intact by the same family.

Mrs. Oakes, who was educated in England, has spent much time in this country since her marriage to Mr. Oakes in 1952. She is a member of the Society of Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center, of the Citizens Committee for Youth Rehabilitation and Development and of the Institute of British-American Cultural Exchange, Inc.

Mr. Gardiner attended St. Bernard's School, New York; St. George's, Newport, R. I., and received his B. A. degree from Columbia University, '34. He also studied in Lausanne, Switzerland; Tours, France, and Cambridge, England. He was a lieutenant commander in the Naval Reserve during World War II, with duty in the Pacific area.

Mr. Gardiner was Democratic candidate for the New York State Senate in 1960, defeated, but polling 118,000 votes. One of the largest landowners in Suffolk County, he has given land to the New York State Park Commission for the Sagtikos State Parkway, called after his estate, Sagtikos Manor, built in 1692, in Bay Shore, L. I. He inherited Gardiner's Island, a 3,300-acre isle off Montauk Point, from his aunt, the late Miss Sarah Diodati Gardiner.

Mr. Gardiner is a member of the Youth Board of New York City, of the Order of the Cincinnati and of the Downtown Association. His clubs include the Racquet and Tennis Club, the New York Athletic Club, the New York Yacht Club, the University Club of Washington, the Devon Yacht Club and the Southampton (L. I.) Beach Club.
